

PETER FRIEDLANDER

PROFILE

Peter Friedlander is a media entrepreneur whose experience started with a creative background while growing up in central Texas. His passion is visual storytelling which has allowed him to document all across nations with ethnicities and cultures.

Peter has been producing professional visual content for non-profits, missions, and businesses on a local and broad scale. His work includes photography, print design, animation, film, writing and web design.

HISTORY

Worked on documentaries and photos for mission and freelance productions from 2006 to 2011 in various countries, including Brazil, India, Kenya, Mexico and Europe.

Worked as a freelance journalist with foreign media in the Middle East, producing TV segments for GODTV, TBN, and journalism for Holyland missions. Also produced a Palestinian Baptist country-wide mission.

Produced several short faith documentaries, including the theater-wide release of "Where Was God" in 2014.

Taught pre-teen school program basics of movie-making in 2014-2015. Hosted and taught a one-year film production class under Awaken Studios LLC, producing several student short films, music videos, and biographies.

Currently serving as Media Director at Adult & Teen Challenge of Oklahoma, designing and educating on film-commercials, print-media, social reach, graphic & web-design, TV and Radio broadcasting, and marketing.
